STRUGGLE OF THE LOCOFOCO LEAD ERS

A strong attempt is making to arouse anew the scattered forces of the locofoco party in defiance of the tremendous condemnation of the American People as expressed by their deliber ate voice at the ballot boxes in 1840. The same men and precisely the same measures are re commended snew Those who have been ejected from office devote themselves as a regular business to the cause of the party as though at was their only formers to live by the spoils of a political victory. Their measures have beed forced upon the country, been trud and nonde ned by the sevreigns of the country the omniputent scaple, still, in utter disregard of the schools music has been musicioned with the the do-gooratio idea, which listens to and resproffully obeys the will of the people, they are as they have proped, and condemned as they have | amey all their bad dispositions Mr. L. thinks it | sort of Wives.

b en, and yet ank to be supported by the intelligenda rather than felands the progress of the schol can be misrepresented, without its being done exploded system at Incotoc Papersoneus - red upon the backs of the whige because they feel compelled to see that it is honorably paid And a ringing vell is kept up on account of the effurts of the present administration to raise the revenue of the county to a level with its expenditures, that it may not continually be issuing its Preasury notes to pay for its daily expenses The long 'neglected subject of the adequate defence of the country has been taken up and measures adopted to fortify our country and guard our coast; and even the expenses attendant upon this object, so desirable and necessary, are paraded as so much unnecessary extravagance In short all the measures of the gov ernment, framed in compliance with the will of the impurity of the people are indiscriminately attacked and nothing better offered in their stead than the exploded poincy which bears the indelible mark of public condemnation branded upon every feature

In their attempt to leap into-po - www.y ly the people into an endurance of their principles and measures, the leaders of the opposition seem-to have sonk the attributes fol men andannihilated all the patriotic impulses of American freemen

There is a deep and cublime meaning in our republican elections, when a great and tree peo ple go up to express their will in the administration of public affairs so intimately connected es this is with the virtue, prosperity and happi ness of the people. Men may prove treacher. ous the people may at times be deceived in their agents, but they will be true to their principles as the needle to the pole. The good they, seek may be delayed their will may be mis represented, misunderstood and for a time delayed, but come the good must, and their will all the jurisdictional rights of Maine. The must ultimately triumph. All labors and plans, therefore, to obtain an approval of the policy of the late administration must prove abortive The people cannot be deceived in regard to it, nor can it readily be imagined that they will sit listlessly by and let selfish demagogues triumph over them On minor questions there ought to be likerty, and on those of commanding impor-

tauce, there should be union and vigilance

WEEK-LY SUMMARY We have had a hot dry week of it with only a little apary to lay the dust for a lew hours, from a shower-experienced in some of the northern towns ine potatoe crop is suffering immensely, and the pastures appear brown and dead Without a speedy and heavy rain the late crops will be very light. Butter sells at a shill ling; hay at $3,00 polatoes at sixty cents Our mechanics continue to find good employment, their merits are becoming better known Thomas Seavy curver, has recently turned out several elegant specimens of his work, for ships. building on our river, and in the county of Hancock He is a splendid workman and no man is more deserving of generous encouragement David Adams has nearly completed another of tinually inventing new contrivances fie has secured two patents already He will probably be able to weigh the world by and by, if any body can find a place on which to place his bal ance Gen Veszie is driving on with his ship, and will get her off the stocks during the next month Que of our citizens, Col Valentine has recently invenied a new wheel for propelling a large quanties of wood owned in part by the steam boats. It works entirely beneath the water It is truly a splendid conception -- one cinity The factory had new and expensive halt of the wheel presents a smooth surface to machinery, fitted up a short time since, and the the water, while the other presents strong pad loss is estimated at $35,000. The policy of in dies where needed to propel the boat, and this surance expired about ten days previous. This condition is constantly kept up by means of slid ing paddler He has-made derangements to secure a patent, and will probably have a boat in operation, on a small scale, in-a few weeks Those engaged in lumbering begin to falick their fumber upon the wharves, for seasoning The Police Court finds its business diminising on account of the Temperance reformation The young men of this City have formed a temperance association, and we may soon expect to find them at work in an efficient manner Mr Starbird of Hampden, a reformed drunkard, lectured at the Baptist Church on Thursday evening He is a good speaker, the relation of his experience was highly interesting, and his earnest appeals to the moderate drinkers and the drunkard touched the heart -A small collection was taken up for his benefit Dr Somerville has continued his highly interesting lectures on mental philosophy, to rather thin audiences Weathink a few evenings devoted by him to select readings, in which he excels, would be sustained. The Veto Message has taken the kink out of the ja wof the Loca Pocos here for a day The leaders of the party danced about like a reformed shaker we had here, and seenied tickled to death at the veto and really seemed to think that old Hickory was President! They will probably laugh the other side of their mouths before a year passes perhape, before a week Our public schools have well as at any former exami In ∎ome of happiest effects. We were particularly struck

gent freemen of the United States ' in order to are. That it knits them together in a kindly get their measures into layor no opportunity is sympathy appears certain. Sickness prevails allowed to pass where the measures of the whigs | considerably among young children, and several of these little 'buds of immortality' have been Even the debt of the nation the legacy of the transplanted to a better world within the week Good unisting in the early stages of disease is the best But alan how deficient are young moth ers in the right kind of education for this important business ! Church going is not as much in vogue as it should be, and people seem not to comprehend the great importance of public worship to amend the heart and life, and unite all in a sympathy in communing with their God There is two much practical denying the existenso and every day providence of Jehavah

GOOD NEWS It is with the most unfeigned pleasure that we annouce to our readers the gratifying intelligence that the watchful and cardwas k borg of our worthy chief inagistrate Edward Kent, has been crowned with success so far as to relieve Maine from the heavy burthen of austaining the civil posis at the Arousto k-and Fish River Information has been received this morning that Iwo companies of United States thildia pana peed out Ask to teliene if " One of them to be stationed at the Aroustook and noisy in his approval of the veto message, and the other at Fish river

The United States Government has complied with the request of Governor Kent who has labored with-diligence and perseverance to effect this important object. and the people have the attelection of knowing that the United States have now assumed the post of responsibility, saving at the same time movement is judicious, and honorable to all par ties, and ma decided advance in the cause

We learn that M Benj Young of Frankfor a young man engaged in the Sugar Box Shook Manufactory of Messrs Cushing & Mayo, at Frankfort Steam Mill,on Thursday the 12th inst scaidentally brought the shirt sleeve of the left arm in contact with one of the edging saws, which instantly drew down his arm, and literal ly took it off, leaving but a very small part of the flesh on the inside of the arm. At 12 o clock the Veto Message was received In anticipation of this, the galleries had been all day crowded with strangers. All other business, was suspended, and the Message was read. There were tokens of approval at the close from the opposition, and of disapproval by several of the Whige

There was also some momentary confusion in the galleries, upon which Mr Benton, suithing I ke a tord, and with a face as red as vermillion, rose with a motion to girear the Bank rollians. who, he said; had insulted the President of the Unded State by Loring his message Mi Rives, Mr "I reston, and many others protested that they had beard no meaning Mr. Benton a friends however, were as confident they had heard this mark of disopprobation, though as as Mr. Buchanan remarked it was neither loud nor prolonged.
